

The Atlantic City Free Public Library will hold a monthly summer concert series at Police and Firefighters Memorial Plaza – located between Main Library and City Hall. The series will open with a performance by singer-songwriter Todd Carey on Thursday, June 8, at 5 p.m. In the event of rain, the concert will be moved to the Richmond Branch Library at the same date and time.

Carey, who has toured nationally and performed with artists such as Fall Out Boy, The 1975, Echosmith, Jason Mraz and John Mayer, is known for his hit “Nintendo”. As a songwriter, he penned Meghan Trainor’s “3AM” from the 2015 triple-platinum album, “Title”.
