Film Society to mark year four anniversary with July party

A party, film viewings and stimulating discussions are planned for the Atlantic City Free Public Library’s July and August meetings.

The group will view and discuss “Homicide” at 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 10. The 1991 crime drama is rated R and runs 102 minutes. It stars

Joe Mantegna and William H. Macy, and it was written and directed by David Mamet.

Advanced registration is required for the Film Society members-only anniversary party at 5:30 p.m. Monday, July 12. Film Society members who want to attend the party, marking the group’s Year Four Anniversary, must e-mail thawki@acfpl.org.

The group meets again Saturday, Aug. 14 to view and discuss “Make Way for Tomorrow,” a not-rated classic drama directed by Leo McCarey. The film is 91 minutes.

and play until dusk. Listed below are the remaining performances:

Saturday, July 10: Heatwave, Plena Libre. One of the disco era’s funkiest dance groups, Heatwave had hits in “Boogie Nights” and “Always and Forever.” Four-time Grammy-nominated Plena Libre is a 12-piece Puerto Rican-based ensemble of virtuoso performers and incorporates Spanish, Caribbean and African sounds. Eddie Morgan and Tru will open the show

Saturday, Aug. 7: Russell Thompkins and the New Stylistics. Russell Thompkins and The Stylistics achieved tremendous success, including a double-platinum album, eight platinum albums and seven gold albums. Thompkins, known for his distinctive falsetto, was the Stylistics’ original lead singer for more than 30 years. They received a Grammy nomination for the 1974 hit “You Make Me Feel Brand New.” The Inca Tribute Band, In the Meantime and Angela Burton and Passion will open the show.

Saturday, Aug. 28: The Dramatics. The Dramatics formed in 1962 (originally known as the Dynamics), and the group made its major breakthrough by cracking Billboard’s Top 10 for the 1971 single “Whatcha See is Whatcha Get.” The group’s biggest hit, “In the Rain,” topped the Hot Soul Singles chart for four weeks in ’72. Jackie Gregg, Motown Groove, and Lana Forrester and Friends with Johnny D’Angelo will open the show.

Please call the City of Atlantic City Recreation/Community Affairs at (609) 347-5643 for more information.

NARU Korean Contemporary Performing Arts opens the 2010 International Night Series on July 7.

International Night Series

the world through diverse, innovative and passionate performances. The group’s shows feature the sul-jang-go (hourglass-shaped drum), and fan, sword, Shaman ritual and drum dances.

Wednesday, July 14: Taiko Masala. By combining the training and discipline of Japanese martial arts with the precision and power of complex drumming, Taiko Masala brings visually stunning and breathless excitement to its performances. The group’s arsenal of instruments, all handmade by the ensemble, ranges from eight-inch hand-held drums to five-foot barrel drums, and features the giant 250-pound O-daiko.

Wednesday, July 21: Piel Canela New York Center of Latin Arts. Piel Canela is a non-profit group dedicated to sharing the world of Latin music and dance, and teaching an appreciation of the culture and its history. Based in New York, Piel Canela teaches a variety of dances, such as salsa, mambo, merengue and tango. It also offers instruction for the guitar and Latin percussion instruments.

Wednesday, July 28: Kan Kouran.

Kan Kouran from Washington, D.C., has been preserving and sharing the African culture since the mid-1980s. The group has performed traditional African dance and drum routines throughout the United States, including at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, Lincoln Center, Smithsonian Institute, and overseas in Poland, Japan and St. Croix.

Wednesday, Aug. 4: Habiba Dance Ensemble. Habiba Dance

Ensemble presents both traditional and interpretive works set to Middle Eastern music. The group provides mesmerizing performances that include: balancing a water jug on the head in the Tunisian Pot Dance, the earthy Saidi Dance of the Egyptian peasant; the solo interpretive classic, Raqs al Sharki (belly dance); and the Ghawazi (a dance of the Egyptian Gypsies). Spectacular costumes, made by hand in Egypt and Tunisia, enhance the performance.

Wednesday, Aug. 11: Barynya. The Russian music, dance and song ensemble Barynya of New York City is a world-renowned group regarded by some as the premier Russian folk ensemble outside of Russia. Barynya presents Russian, Cossack, Ukrainian, Jewish and Russian Gypsy music, along with traditional dances that are emotional, energetic and often highly athletic.

Wednesday, Aug. 18: Island Jam. Island Jam presents a show of contrasts. One minute hula girls are gracefully dancing to slow and relaxing Polynesian music, and the next the group turns up the heat and energy, pounding away on the drums as the male members perform a warrior dance or sensational fire dancing exhibition.

Wednesday, Aug. 25: Bollywood Axion.

New York City’s Bollywood Axion is the United States’ first professional dance school for Bollywood and bhangra dance classes. The group blends class Indian dance techniques, contemporary Western influences, Punjabi bhangra’s energy and the spirit of Hindi cinema. The group has appeared on the CBS “Early Show,” and in Hollywood and Bollywood films.

Jazz series

and local favorites as opening acts.

The schedule features:

Thursday, July 1: Ralph Peterson, Jr. Pleasantville native Peterson returns to the area to open this summer's series. He is renowned in jazz circles for his powerful, energetic and distinctive style of drumming. Peterson, who apprenticed under such jazz greats as Art Blakey, Betty Carter, Elvin Jones, and Walter Davis, heads the Ralph Peterson Quintet, Fo'tet and Trio. He is currently a professor at the prestigious Berklee College of Music in Boston. Steve Cain is the opening act.

Thursday, July 8: Avery Sharpe. Sharpe was a long-time bassist for McCoy Tyner, and his credits include stints with legends ranging from Dizzy Gillespie to Pat Metheny. Highly regarded for his soulful, gospel-influenced style, he released "Avery Sharpe Trio Live," an album described as having "plenty of swinging goodness," in April 2010. Sharpe is also an accomplished composer who wrote and performed the music for Raisin' Cane, a theatrical and musical celebration of the Harlem Renaissance starring Jasmine Guy. Pete Chavez is the opening act.

Thursday, July 15: John Blake, Jr. One of the world's leading jazz violinists for more than four decades, Blake is a four-time winner of DownBeat's critics poll for Violinist Deserving Wider Recognition. The Philadelphia resident first gained worldwide attention in the mid-1970s as a touring member of Grover Washington, Jr.'s crossover jazz band and was once called "the best new jazz violinist of the decade" by Billboard. Hassan Abdullah is the opening act.

Thursday, July 22: Tim Warfield. Hailed by the New York Times as "possibly the most powerful tenor saxophonist of his generation," Warfield owns an impressive resume that includes work on Grammy-nominated albums by Nicholas Payton and Stefon Harris. Warfield's "A Cool Blue" (1995) and "Gentle Warrior" (1998) were chosen among the top 10 recordings of the year in New York Times critics' polls. He has appeared on the "Today Show" and as a house band member on Bill Cosby's "You Bet Your Life." The Chicken Bone Beach Youth Jazz Ensemble is the opening act.

Thursday, July 29: Ella Gahnt. Performing professionally since the age of 18, Philadelphia vocalist Gahnt has worked with many top artists, including Grover Washington, Jr., The Stylistics and Pieces of a Dream. She has appeared at the Zanzibar Blue, Beaujolais Bistro and Annenberg Zellerbach Theater in Philadelphia. She sings with the Philadelphia Legends of Jazz Orchestra, which her husband, Leon Mitchell, directs. Keith Hollis is the opening act.

Thursday, Aug. 5: Steve Pouchie. Pouchie is a sensational vibraphonist, band leader, producer of a Latin music cable show and educator. Pouchie cites the music of the great Tito Puente and Cal Tjader as huge influences. His latest release, which features some of New York City's premier Latin jazz artists, is "El Puente" (The Bridge). Jim Lopez & The Latin Stars is the opening act.

Thursday, Aug. 12: NYC Finest Jazz Band. The 18-member NYC Finest Jazz Band is an ensemble of full-time sworn New York City Police Officers. The band, which performs all styles of jazz music, including swing, Dixieland, bebop, cool jazz, Latin jazz, and the blues, has played with the likes of Wynton Marsalis, Bette Midler, Soprano Cristina Fontanelli, Cyndi Lauper and Marc Anthony. Dan Fogel is the opening act.

The 11th Annual Jazz on the Beach Concert Series is funded in part by the New Jersey State Council of the Arts/Department of State through the Atlantic County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs, City of Atlantic City, Atlantic City Free Public Library, Atlantic City Convention Center, ZEO Bros, Just 4 Wheels, Comcast, Kramer Beverage Company, Coors, Harrah's Entertainment, PNC Bank, Kinematica Inc. The free weekly concerts take place at Kennedy Plaza on the Atlantic City Boardwalk, located between Mississippi and Georgia Avenues. Be sure to visit the library's booth — tentatively scheduled to be located in front of Kennedy Plaza — during the airshow.

The show is free. For more information about this year's airshow, please visit www.atlanticcityairshow.com.

The 2010 Atlantic City Airshow comes 100 years after Atlantic City and Asbury Park hosted New Jersey's very first airshows.

To pay tribute to those airshows past and present, the Atlantic City and Asbury Park libraries are offering photo exhibits titled "Flying Fearless: Celebrating the Centennial Anniversary of Airshows in New Jersey."

The exhibits, featuring blown-up shots from the 1910 airshows, can be viewed at the Atlantic City Historical Museum on Garden Pier (as of early July), Atlantic City Airport's terminal building, Township of Ocean Historical Museum in Monmouth County and online at www.njairshows1910.org.

Also, those interested in viewing some of those photos can do so at the library's table at this year's airshow.

New language learning software, digital Sanborn maps of N.J. now offered

The Atlantic City Free Public Library has added two new databases to the extensive online library available at www.acfpl.org.

Byki (before you know it) Foreign Language Learning — Want to learn a new language without spending hundreds of dollars? Try our new, free language learning tool, byki. More than 80 foreign languages are offered, from Afrikaans to Zulu, along with ESL instruction in many languages. The benefits include:

- Unlimited use from your home computer 24 hours a day, seven days a week, or from the library.
- Individual progress tracking and assessment tests help identify areas that need improvement.
- Advanced pronunciation analysis.

Visit our website at www.acfpl.org. Click on Do Research/Online Research Library and log in with your library card barcode. Then, click on byki and choose a username and password so you can track your progress.

Digital Sanborn Maps — This is a collection of 1,237 large-scale maps of 265 New Jersey cities — including Atlantic City. The maps include information such as the outline of each building, the size, shape and construction materials, heights, and location of windows and doors. The Sanborn Map Company was the main American publisher of fire insurance maps for almost 100 years, and the digital collection is searchable by city and date. The black and white digital images were produced from a microform of the Sanborn atlases in the Library of Congress collection. Date coverage varies by city; 1884-early 1950s.
