Library airshow photos to be exhibited this summer

'Flying Fearless' exhibit is part of library's celebration of 100th anniversary of state, city's first airshows

Back in 1910, when airplanes were a novelty and most Americans had never seen man fly, a series of "Aero Meets" were sponsored across the United States to showcase the great fliers of the day. Atlantic City and Asbury Park were two stages for the shows in the summer of 1910.

To celebrate the 100th anniversary of those shows, the Atlantic City Free Public Library and Asbury Park Public Library will create exhibits — Flying Fearless: Celebrating the Centennial Anniversary of Airshows in New Jersey — at locations in Atlantic and Monmouth counties.

The Flying Fearless exhibits, which will include duplicates of Atlantic City Free Public Library Heston Collection photographs and newspaper clippings from 1910, will be displayed in the Atlantic City International Airport terminal building as part of the airport's Artport program. The exhibit

Atlantic City Library honored by NJLA for third straight year

The Atlantic City Free Public Library has won a New Jersey Library Association Public Relations Award for the third consecutive year.

The annual NJLA Public Relations Contest features several categories for libraries to enter their work, and each category is broken up into divisions based on library operating budget.

The Atlantic City Free Public Library was chosen for best Public Relations Campaign. The library submitted the PR package it used to promote the October 2009 grand opening of its innovative Teen Space.

The NJLA honored the library in 2008 for Best Newsletter and 2009 for Best Program Announcement. Don Latham is the library's Public Information Officer.

The winners received their awards at the annual NJLA Conference Honors and Awards Ceremony on Tuesday, April 27, at the Ocean Place Resort & Spa in Long Branch.

Music, dance, arts and crafts planned for annual Cinco de Mayo celebration

The City of Atlantic City and Atlantic City Free Public Library invite the public to participate in a Cinco de Mayo celebration 12-1:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 5, in the auditorium located across the hall from the Main Library.

Atlantic City Mayor Lorenzo T. Langford will open the festivities by welcoming the crowd and raising the Mexican flag. Attendees will be able to learn about the history of Cinco de Mayo and enjoy festive music and dance.

Children and teens can also take part in the celebration after school by making arts and crafts with a library staff member from 3:30-4:30 p.m.

Local students will once again perform a folkloric dance at the city and library's Cinco de Mayo event.

The holiday of Cinco de Mayo commemorates the anniversary of the victory of the Mexican militia over the French army at the Battle of Puebla in 1862. The victory was a glorious moment for Mexican patriots and it helped develop a needed sense of national unity.

Please call Mimi Lee at 345-2269, ext. 3115, Emma Escobar 347-6442 or Sheila Harvey at 343-6326 for more information.

Create your very own claymation movie

Ever dream of making your own movie? The Atlantic City Free Public Library is offering youths ages 9-17 a chance to create a claymation movie using the Teen Space's computer and audio-visual equipment.

This is a series of programs. Each class builds on the last, so attendance at all four programs is strongly encouraged. They will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. on May 10, 12, 17 and 19.

Registration is required for those interested. To register, please call (609) 345-2269, ext. 3050 or 3052.

The claymation series will conclude on May 19, when participants and their friends and family can view the world premiere of their claymation movies.

supply of tickets. Atlantic City Library members can request their free tickets at the Youth Services desk at the Main Library (One North Tennessee Ave.) or the Atlantic City Library Express (3001 Atlantic Ave.).

The library will offer programs and information in the aquarium's second-floor conference room:

Make-and-take crafts at 12:30 and 3:30 p.m. – Participants can create ocean-themed crafts.

Face painting from 1 to 4 p.m. – Children can pick a sea creature to have painted on their face.

Storytelling telling at 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. – Storyteller Bridget Flynn will tell the Chinook folktale The Boy Who Lived With Seals and Liz-ard's Song by George Shannon.

Coloring table and information about library programs – Those who want to show off their artistic skills can stop by the library's coloring table.

Also, ask a library staff member about exciting programs coming up this summer, including a busy slate of Summer Reading Program events and the International Night entertainment series held weekly at Kennedy Plaza.

Also, be sure to check out the aquarium's schedule of events, including a live diver feeding show at 11 a.m., feeding time for baby stingrays and bamboo sharks at 12 and 3 p.m.; and an exotic animal show at 2 p.m.

Mayor Langford and Atlantic City Library Board of Trustees President William Cheatham cut the ceremonial ribbon to officially open the Library Express.

Also, Mayor Langford was the first person to check out a book at this location. He borrowed Atlantic City: Images of America.

City resident Ray Masourati was the first adult to apply for a library card at Library Express, and 2-year-old Ryan Shapiro was the first children's library card applicant.

The Library Express is open Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day. Call (609) 340-0215 for more information.

SCENES FROM A.C. LIBRARY EXPRESS OPENING

The Atlantic City Public Library introduced the Atlantic City Library Express (3001 Atlantic Ave.) on April 22.

Atlantic City Mayor Lorenzo T. Langford checked out the first book — Atlantic City: Images of America — with the help of staff members Rosa Rodriguez and Rick Gerhardt. Aubrey Gerhardt and her nephew, Ryan Shapiro, 2, use a touch-screen computer at the Library Express during the opening. (Please see page one story for details).
