Revamped, expanded ESL program to debut in March

SEE PAGE 2 FOR MARCH/APRIL ESL CLASS SCHEDULE

The Atlantic City Free Public Library has enhanced its English as a Second Language program to offer more topics and classes than ever before.

The ESL classes — open to Atlantic City Library members 18 years of age and older — are essential for students to not only gain English language skills, but to help them adjust to American life and culture.

The library will offer two weekly sessions: ESL Pronunciation, Listening and Speaking, and ESL Conversation Club. Also, a monthly session — ESL Learning Lab — will be offered.

In the Pronunciation, Listening and Speaking class, students will practice the distinct sounds that exist in the English language, and also listening to and speaking about a variety of topics relevant to life in the United States.

Jazz great Blakey focus of April 2 book talk, concert

The Atlantic City Free Public Library will present a book talk and jazz concert program — Remembering Our Jazz Neighbors — at 2 p.m. Saturday, April 2, in the Main Library's second-floor meeting room.

Author Sandy Warren will discuss her latest book, Art Blakey Cookin' and Jammin': Recipes and Remembrances from a Jazz Life.

The concert portion of the program will feature popular musician Eddie Morgan, who will perform some of Blakey's recordings, as well as the favorite tunes of another late jazz performer with local ties, Johnny Andrews.

Warren was Blakey's long-time companion. The couple, who resided in Northfield, loved to cook together. Warren's book is filled with recipes, rare Blakey family photos and her remembrances of the drumming legend.

The program is free and open to people of all ages. Please call (609) 345-2269, ext. 3115, for more information.

A February to remember

The Atlantic City Free Public Library offered a wide range of programs in February in celebration of Black History Month. (Top photo) African-American Heritage Museum of Southern New Jersey founder Ralph E. Hunter, Sr., interacts with the audience during 'The Black Northside Empire' photo exhibit reception. ### Library invites local writers to participate in Author Expo

► The Author Expo and return of 'Food for Fines' will be held during National Library Week, which is April 10-16.

The Atlantic City Free Public Library is accepting applications for its first Author Expo, which will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, April 16, in the Main Library.

The goal of this event is to encourage literary involvement in the community by providing a forum for local writers to connect and build an audience with the Atlantic City reading public.

The Author Expo coincides with National Library Week, which is April 10-16. Writers interested in participating need to apply online at www.acfpl.org to be considered. Applications and required materials must be submitted by Sunday, March 20.

Also, the library will continue a tradition by holding a "Food for

Around-the-clock online research access: It's like having your own library

While it's true the Atlantic City Free Public Library has two official locations — one could make the case there are thousands of unofficial and virtual versions of the library throughout the city and surrounding communities.

How so? The library offers a wealth of electronic research resources through our website, www.acfpl.org. So, not only can people use these resources at the Main Library or Atlantic City Library Express, but library card holders can access most of these resources from any computer or device with an Internet connection 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Library card holders can utilize the resources from home or work, in the middle of the day or middle of the night, from a personal computer or even a smart phone.

That kind of around-the-clock access is like having your very own library!

Upcoming library events

Enjoy convenience of A.C. Library Express

The Atlantic City Library Express — located at 3001 Atlantic Avenue — offers books in many languages in addition to English.

The library has kids and adults books in Bengali, Chinese, Hindi, Spanish and Vietnamese. And, library members in good standing can request that the library purchase certain titles not already in its collection.

Parking available

There are a limited number of free parking spaces, including one handicapped parking spot, available to customers at Library Express. Library customers can park there for up to one hour. The lot is located next to the library on Morris Avenue.

Also, there is metered parking on Atlantic Avenue and street parking in the vicinity.

Making your library experience as convenient as possible

The library wants to make borrowing items from our collection as convenient as can be. Want a book available at the Main Library held for you at Library Express — or vice versa? No problem. We will have the item you requested delivered to the location you prefer.

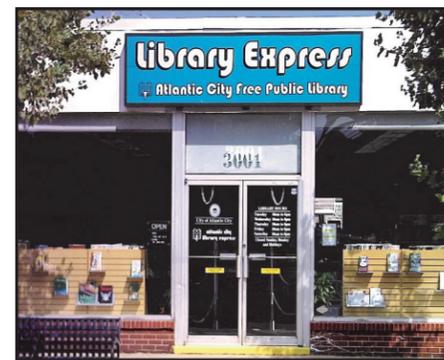

And, you can return the items you have borrowed to either locations — regardless of where you borrowed them. However, only books and magazines can be placed in the book drops at Library Express.

Teacher loans

A teacher who lives in Atlantic County and works in Atlantic City is eligible for a free teacher loan card. This card offers special borrowing privileges for classroom resources. Teachers can borrow up to 20 print items for as many as six weeks.

Individuals applying for a teacher loan card must already have an Atlantic City Library card in good standing. New members must apply at Youth Services at the Main Library, but existing members can renew their membership at Library Express.

The Atlantic City Library Express is open 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday.

Call Library Express coordinator Rick Gerhardt at 340-0215 for more information.

Earth Day, recycling focus of April crafts

April 22 is Earth Day, and the Atlantic City Free Public Library will celebrate this event throughout April with arts and crafts programs for kids ages 9 to 17.

For programs that require registration or for more information, please call (609) 345-2269, ext. 3050, or visit the Youth Services desk at the Main Library.

Bean Wall Panel at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 6 — Do you like gluing items, even things such as pasta, beans and rocks? If so, this craft is for you. Participants will make a wonderful bean panel to show how even the simplest of crafts can be sophisticated. Registration is required.

3-D Blossom Box/Origami Flowers at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 13 — This is a very cool way to display flowers in 3-D. Participants will make beautiful origami flowers out of recycled book pages, old buttons and tree branch pieces. Then design a floral arrangement in a flower box that you can hang on your wall or give to that special someone to celebrate the coming of spring. Registration is required.

Subscription Card Artwork at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 20 — Take those annoying subscription cards that always seem to fall out of magazines and turn them into cool art using stamps, ink and paint.

Do-It-Yourself Super Tote at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 27 — Design your own reusable, environmentally friendly book bag. This bag is so strong and cool that you can carry your books or groceries anywhere you go. No more plastic bags! Registration is required.

about our world — from the depths of the oceans to the far reaches of outer space. Biology, the environment, physics, space and technology and more are covered through encyclopedias, magazines, and reference texts.

The Home Improvement Reference Center is a database filled with illustrations, step-by-step directions, and tips to help the novice successfully tackle and complete home improvement projects. Plumbing, electrical, woodworking and decorating are among the areas covered with easy to follow steps. The Home Improvement Reference Center can help people save money and provide the answers to their fix-it questions.

The library offers Personal Librarian Service (PLS) appointments. Call (609) 345-2269, e-mail reflib@acfpl.org or visit the Main Library's Reference Desk for assistance.

Fines" food drive during National Library Week. People can make a food donation in lieu of paying a fine on overdue materials — all week at its Main Library and Library Express locations.

For the Author Expo:

- An application must be completed to be considered. Visit www.acfpl.org for the application, which needs to be filled out online. Space is limited.
- Only individual authors may apply; no groups.
- Authors may sell their books at the Expo.
- Authors will be required to be present throughout the event.

ESL

Students in the Conversation Club will learn appropriate and relevant vocabulary, and gain more confidence performing basic and advanced tasks related to everyday issues — such as banking, health care and employment.

The monthly ESL Learning Lab will offer students a warm environment where they can improve their knowledge of English in the areas of listening, speaking, reading and writing. This computer-aided language learning program offers online learning tools as well as support and individual help from our librarians.

All ESL classes will be held in the Main Library's second-floor meeting room.

Advanced registration is required. To register, please visit the first-floor tutoring room in the Main Library (One North Tennessee Avenue) from 12 to 1 p.m. on Mondays; or, call ESL Coordinator Mimi Lee at (609) 345-2269, ext. 3115.

• Any materials submitted with applications become the property of the library.

• Authors may choose to provide the following via the online application form for possible inclusion in promotional materials about the Expo:

- Biographical sketch (150 words or less)
- A short summary for each of their books (150 words or less)
- A photo of the author (one per author, in high resolution and jpg format)
- A photo of his/her book cover (one per book, in high resolution and jpg format)
- Authors selected to participate will be notified by March 31. Call (609) 345-2269, ext. 3115, for more information.

Did You Know?

Atlantic City Free Public Library members borrowed 300,000 items

There is no shortage of activity or people at the Atlantic City Free Public Library.

The Main Library and Atlantic City Library Express combined had more than half a million people enter their doors in 2010. And, they kept Circulation staff busy by borrowing more than 370,000 items.

Also, library staff members signed up 7,851 customers for membership or computer cards last year — an increase of 98 percent from 2009.

The 2010 numbers would be even greater if Library Express was open all last year. That location opened to the public on April 22.

Here's a look at some of our 2010 statistics:

- People who entered the Main Library: (457,462) and Library Express (55,649).
- Items borrowed at Main Library (327,570) and Library Express (44,705).
- DVDs borrowed at Main Library: 218,869
- DVDs borrowed at Library Express: 31,416
- Print items borrowed at Main Library (78,047) and Library Express (11,770).
- Youth Services attendance: 58,400
- Youth Services Department programs: 99
- Children and young adults attending Youth Services programs: 18,204
- Children and young adults attending Summer Reading Program: 3,155
- Researchers using the resources of the Heston Collection of Atlantic City history: 664
- Questions answered by Reference staff at the Main Library: 27,571

IRISH GROUP TO PERFORM ON MARCH 9

The Atlantic City Free Public Library is getting into the St. Patrick's Day spirit by hosting an Irish concert at 6 p.m. Wednesday, March 9, in the Main Library's second-floor meeting room.

Ceol Binn (pictured to the right), featuring Soprano-guitarist Leslie Clarke and harpist Stephanie Sussmeier, will perform. The concert is free and open to people of all ages. No registration is required.

Clarke has performed as a soloist with the Stockton Oratorio Society, Festival Chorus, St. Peter's United Methodist Church, First Church of Christ Scientist in Ocean City, and with the Tuscany Singers at the Renault Winery and Joseph's Restaurants.

Sussmeier has been playing the harp for more than a decade. She performs for weddings and background music, and teaches harp at her home and at the Ocean City Arts Center.
