Atlantic City's sounds of summer ...

Library partners with City, Chicken Bone Beach Foundation to offer free concerts

Local residents and visitors have plenty of free entertainment series to choose from this summer. (From left to right) The featured artists will include Universal African Dance and Drum Ensemble at the Atlantic City Library International Night Series on July 11; the Chi-Lites at the City of Atlantic City Summer Concert Series on July 21; Orrin Evans at the Chicken Bone Beach Jazz on the Beach Series on Aug. 2 and Gina Roché at the Bartram Beach Block Concert Series on Aug. 3.

As the summer heats up, so too does Atlantic City's free entertainment scene.

The Atlantic City Free Public Library is once again partnering with the City of Atlantic City and Chicken Bone Beach Historical Foundation, Inc., to present an outstanding musical lineup to local residents and visitors.

The library and city will bring a multi-cultural flair to Kennedy Plaza on Wednesday nights with the Fifth annual Atlantic City Library International Night Series. The series will feature music and dance from cultures around the world. The shows are 90 minutes long and begin at 7 p.m.

The city and library are also co-sponsoring both the Atlantic City Summer Concert Series and Bartram Beach Block Concert Series.

The A.C. Summer Concert Series, which takes place on select Saturdays at Gardner's Basin, highlights the talents of local favorites and popular acts from the 1970s and '80s. Shows start at 1 p.m. Headliners take the stage at 4 p.m. and play until dusk.

Looking to catch some music on a Friday night? Bring a chair or blanket and enjoy the music of some popular local artists at the biweekly Bartram Beach Block Series. The shows will be held 7-8:30 p.m. at Bartram and the Boardwalk.

ATLANTIC CITY LIBRARY INTERNATIONAL NIGHT SERIES

(co-sponsored by the City of Atlantic City)

7-8:30 p.m. Wednesdays at Kennedy Plaza on Atlantic City Boardwalk

July 11: Universal African Dance and Drum Ensemble — Based in Camden, Universal African Dance and Drum delivers one electrifying performance after another, dazzling spectators with performances that are acrobatic, energetic and educational. The group, which has been featured throughout the country at many prestigious events, will perform ancestral dancing, intensified drumming and stilt walking.

July 18: Dancing Crane — Dancing Crane will present the music and dance of the country of Georgia, located in the Caucasus region (at the border of Europe and Asia between the Black and Caspian seas). Georgian dance is powerful yet elegant, and it rivals classic ballet in its demanding and refined technique. Dancing Crane will also play native music on traditional folk instruments.

July 25: Niyaz — Since forming in 2005, Niyaz, which means "yearning" in Persian and Urdu, has toured the world, including shows throughout North America, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. The band borrows from a historic lineage of Middle Eastern poets, setting verse to music. The Huffington Post declared the band "an evolutionary force in contemporary Middle Eastern music."

Aug. 1: Magdaliz and her Latin Ensemble Crisol — Crisol, which is Spanish for melting pot, is an ensemble that has been performing in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and New York since 1997. This group is dedicated to the interpretation of a variety of folk and traditional music genres from Cuba, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Colombia, Venezuela, and other parts of Latin America.

Aug. 8: Everybody Loves Italian — Everybody Loves Italian says its goal is to celebrate the decent, wonderful and generous personalities of the Italians and their descendants. Strength of character enveloped in love and affection is the positive message it wishes to convey. The group accomplishes that through classically presented song, dance and warmly humorous stories.

Aug. 15: The Barley Boys — The Barley Boys play original, traditional and contemporary Irish music. The group's powerful drums, melodic bass, high-energy fiddle and innovative guitars join together to form an exciting and entertaining sound.

Aug. 22: Taiko Masala — By combining the training and discipline of Japanese martial arts with the precision and power of complex drumming, Taiko Masala brings visually stunning and breathless excitement to its performances. The group's arsenal of instruments, all handmade by the ensemble, ranges from eight-inch hand-held drums to five-foot barrel drums, and includes the giant 250-pound O-daiko.

Aug. 29: N.Y. Korean Marching Band — Enjoy a meditative performance featuring the changgo, the traditional Korean hour-glass drum, adapted for p'ungnyu, the classical ensemble music of Korean nobility. P'ungnyu also refers to a state of human leisure, a removal from the mundane and elevation to a harmonious state appreciative of poetry, music and companionship.

Sept. 5: Hawaiian Luau Entertainment — Hawaiian Luau Entertainment presents a show of contrasts. One minute hula girls are gracefully dancing to slow and relaxing Polynesian music, and the next the group turns up the heat and energy, pounding away on the drums as the male members perform a warrior dance or sensational fire dancing exhibition.

All shows are free. Call (609) 345-2269, ext. 3112; or, visit www.acfpl.org for more information.

CITY OF ATLANTIC CITY SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

(co-sponsored by the Atlantic City Free Public Library)

1 p.m.-dusk Saturdays at Gardner's Basin

July 21: WAR and the Chi-Lites — WAR's mix of jazz, rock, funk, reggae, soul, R&B and Latin influences has been a recipe for success. "The World Is a Ghetto" was Billboard's 1972 Album of the Year, and hit singles such as "Low Rider" and "Why Can't We Be Friends?" remain popular. The Chi-Lites still feature original member Marshall Thompson and are widely known for a couple of their hits in the early '70s, including R&B No. 1 songs "Have You Seen Her" and "Oh Girl," which also soared to the top of the Pop chart. Rick Cason Express, Mark Big & Tasty Baxter, and Judah Dorrington open the show.

Aug. 4: Gospel Fest featuring Kurt Carr and The Kurt Carr Singers — National gospel-recording artist Kurt Carr has performed throughout the world, including for President George W. Bush in 2008 at the White House — and has received gospel's prestigious Stellar and Dove awards. The John Howard Gospel Caravan and many local choirs open the show.

Aug. 18: Cameo and Enchantment — It was hard to turn a radio in the mid-to-late 1980s without hearing the hit single "Word Up!" from Cameo, an outlandish group with a hard-driving funk sound. The single came from the "Word Up!" album, which reached No. 8 on the Billboard 200. Just one year after putting out "Gloria" and "Sunshine" — both top-five songs on the R&B chart — Enchantment's single "It's You That I Need" soared to No. 1 in 1978. Coolist & Maceo Mobley, Special Occasion, and Angela Burton and Passion, open the show.

DJ Maurice "The Voice" Watts from 90.3 FM in New York and www.lovezone.com is the concert emcee.

All shows are free. Schedule is subject to change. The raindate for postponed shows is the Sunday of that same weekend. This series is funded in part by the Casino Reinvestment Development Authority.

Call (609) 347-5643 for more information.

CHICKEN BONE BEACH HISTORICAL FOUNDATION'S JAZZ ON BEACH SERIES

(co-sponsored by the Atlantic City Free Public Library)

7-10 p.m. Thursdays at Kennedy Plaza on Atlantic City Boardwalk

July 5: Odean Pope — Philadelphia saxophone legend Odean Pope integrates several musical influences — including the church choir of his youth, Philadelphia jazz and R&B of the 1950s, and classical woodwind chamber music — to create a sound all his own. Famed for the husky sounds he produces on the sax, Pope spent more than two decades as a member of the Max Roach Quartet and has received acclaim around the globe, including Best Tenor Saxophone Player at the North Sea Jazz Festival. The Brenda Bass Ensemble is the opening act.

July 12: Tim Warfield — Hailed by the New York Times as "possibly the most powerful tenor saxophonist of his generation," Warfield owns an impressive resume that includes work on Grammy-nominated albums by Nicholas Payton and Stefon Harris. Warfield's "A Cool Blue" (1995) and "Gentle Warrior" (1998) were chosen among the top 10 recordings of the year in New York Times critics' polls. Crosswinds is the opening act.

July 19: Webb Thomas Superband — Drummer Webb Thomas enrolled at the Settlement Music School as a 5-year-old, and he hasn't put down the sticks since. An extraordinarily versatile drummer, Webb has made quite a name for himself locally, nationally and abroad. He has been a promoter for Philly's premier jazz club Zanzibar Blue, where he has appeared with Doug Carn, David "Fathead" Newman, Jane Bunnett and the Spirits of Havana, and Benny Golson. Tony Perez (Ola Latina) is the opening act.

July 26: Kim Thompson — Kim Thompson has taken her immense talent as a drummer all over the world, performing in 33 countries. In addition to going on tour to promote Beyonce's "B'Day" album, Thompson has worked with an impressive list of artists that includes Jay-Z, Meshell N'Degeocello and Rev. Run from Run DMC. Gina Roché is the opening act.

Aug. 2: Orrin Evans — Described as "the clear-cut best pianist of his time" by Hot House Magazine, Evans has toured with such diverse talents as the evolutionary Wallace Roney, Stefon Harris and Antonio Hart. He is also a teacher and musical commentator, having conducted workshops, clinics and master classes both in the United States and abroad. The Chicken Bone Beach Youth Jazz Ensemble is the opening act.

Aug. 9: Javon Jackson Band — A show featuring the Javon Jackson Band presents many different musical styles, including jazz, funk, R&B and rock. As a recording artist, Jackson, a tenor saxophonist, has appeared on more than 125 recordings. Jackson credits his three years playing with the great Art Blakey, a former Northfield resident, and his Jazz Messengers for helping him get to where he is today. Tori Gee is the opening act.

Aug. 16: Bill Jacobs Ensemble — With compositional influences extending beyond mainstream jazz and utilizing global sources — Afro-Caribbean rhythms, Reggae, Mambo, Salsa, Pop, Calypso — the Bill Jacobs Ensemble contains all of the building blocks necessary for a deeply intimate connection and musical conversation with audiences. Dwain Davis is the opening act.

Aug. 23: Taekó — Singer Taekó has drawn rave reviews in the jazz world from peers and critics. Singer/actress Juanita Fleming calls her "one of the best of her generation." Writing about her 2007 album "One Love," jazz critic Jordan Richardson says Taekó "tempers deep soulfulness reminiscent of Anita Baker with sophisticated scatting a la Ella Fitzgerald." She released "Voice," which features a vibrant patchwork of jazz styles, in 2010. George A. Johnson, Jr., is the opening act.

Aug. 30: Mimi Jones — New York native Mimi Jones is a multi-talented bassist, vocalist and composer. She released her debut CD, "A New Day," and is currently working on her second. Mimi has performed or recorded with, the great Lionel Hampton, Kenny Barron, Tia Fuller and Terri Lyne Carrington. Mimi toured extensively throughout Europe, the United States and has performed on five continents as a U.S. Jazz Ambassador. Luke Carlos O'Reilly is the opening act.

The 13th annual Jazz on the Beach Concert Series is funded in part by the NJ State Council of the Arts/Department of State through the Atlantic County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs, Casino Reinvestment Development Authority (CRDA), Atlantic City Free Public Library, Comcast, PNC Bank, Kinematica Inc, Kramer Beverage Co. COORS, Just 4 Wheels, Atlantic City Convention Center, City of Atlantic City and ZEO Brothers. Tune in to Stockton College Radio Station WLFR 91.7 FM on Wednesdays from 7-8 p.m. for Chicken Bone Beach hour.

CITY OF ATLANTIC CITY BARTRAM BEACH BLOCK CONCERT SERIES

(co-sponsored by the Atlantic City Free Public Library)

7-8:30 p.m. Fridays at Bartram Avenue and the Atlantic City Boardwalk

July 6: Tony Day — A local favorite who has played all over the country, drummer/percussionist Tony Day presents an entertaining mix of funk, blues, Latin jazz, swing and improvisational solos.

July 20: Denise Black and Triangular Swing — Denise Black and her group take listeners back in time by performing some of the popular music of the Big Band Era.

Aug. 3: Gina Roché — A vocalist, guitarist and composer, Gina Roché and percussionist Jim Hamilton will perform Brazilian, blues and original compositions. She recently released her second CD, "Thankfully."

Aug. 17: Tony DeLuca Trio — Affectionately known as the "Minister of Music," Tony DeLuca is a versatile musician who specializes in jazz and Italian songs.

The Atlantic City Free Public always has news to share with its members and the community — whether it be about a great new resource it is providing, updates about ongoing projects or information regarding the array of library programming.

There are many ways for those who want to be kept in the loop about such library news to stay informed.

Two of the most popular options are the library's website — www.acfpl.org — and this newsletter, Discovery. Did you know that in addition to picking up a copy of Discovery at the Main Library and Atlantic City Library Express locations, you can go to our website to read it online (under the Library News tab) or subscribe to receive a link to the newsletter when the newest issue comes out? The subscribe option is located on the left side of the library website.

Social media websites — such as Facebook and Twitter — are great options, as well. Facebook and Twitter are the quickest ways to get breaking news, such as an unexpected change in library hours or important updates about programs. Also, photo galleries and video about Atlantic City history or library programs — such as the International Night Series — are posted on Facebook. Find the library on Facebook at www.facebook.com/acfpl and follow on Twitter @AtlanticCityLib.

The library also created its own YouTube channel last year. Videos of library programs — including the annual Kwanzaa celebration — are available, and additional videos will be added throughout the year.
